

ALLENDALE CHRISTIAN SCHOOL ACCEPTABLE USE POLICY

As an integrated component of class curriculum, your child(ren) will have supervised access to the Internet. The use of the Internet is a privilege, not a right, and inappropriate use will result in cancellation of those privileges. The staff will deem what is inappropriate use and their decision will be final.

CODE OF CONDUCT

Students are expected to exercise responsible Christian behavior when on the Internet. These responsibilities include:

1. Using the network and e-mail for school related activities only.
2. Adhering to the rules of copyright. Unauthorized copying or transfer of copyrighted materials is prohibited.
3. Respecting the privacy of individuals.
4. Accessing teacher- authorized resources or entities only.
5. Using the resources efficiently.
6. Respecting another user's data.
7. Caring appropriately for the computer equipment and network system.

ACCEPTABLE USE POLICY CONSENT

While student use will be supervised, Allendale Christian School does not have control of the full range of information on the Internet. Some sites accessible via the Internet may contain material that is inaccurate or potentially offensive to some people. Teachers will block any inappropriate sight of which they are aware.

By signing the consent form below, the parents have acknowledged that they have discussed the rights and responsibilities of Internet access with their child(ren), and has agreed to abide by the Acceptable Use Policy.
